Stage 1 ESL

Investigation – Oral Presentation

Task:

Interview one or more people of a different culture or generation than your own about one of the issues we have studied in class (Surrogacy, Air Safety, Gender Inequality, Education 2.0). Write at least seven questions which relate to your central topic and will gather interesting responses. In an oral presentation, you will report on the following using PPT slides:

- Your questions (what were they and why did you choose them?)
- The process of the interview (how did it go? What problems did you face?)
- The results of the interview (what did you learn?)
- Evaluate how effective your interview was
- Answer brief questions

Length: maximum of 6 minutes

Due: In class Wed 24 Sept (week 10)

Weighting: 20% of semester grade

Assessment criteria:

Analysis

An2   Location, recording, analysis, and synthesis of ideas, information, and opinions from a range of written, oral, visual, and multimedia texts.

Application

Ap1   Selection and use of information from a range of sources.

Communication

C3   Use of interpersonal language to sustain spoken interaction.

Some possible sentence starters for you to use:

Introduction

- This report/presentation focuses on…
- The broad topic of this investigation is…
- More specifically it focuses on…

Your questions (what were they and why did you choose them?)

- The seven interview questions were…
- These were chosen because…
- I predicted that this question would…

The process of the interview (how did it go? What problems did you face?)

- The interview went quite/reasonably well. Firstly…
- The interviewee was…
- I was/not prepared for…
- Although I expected… actually…
- One problem was…

The results of the interview (what did you learn?)

- The results of the interview showed that…
- The interviewee stated that…
- He/she also said…
- As expected…

Evaluate how effective your interview was

- Overall I felt the interview was/not effective because…
- One thing I would do differently next time is…